

Embracing the Truth of Your Divinity

Embodying Your Divine Self

By
Jackie Self

There was something missing... I was living my life... I had friends, family, and enough income; yet something was just not quite right! It was difficult to pinpoint... I looked at all the angles; body, emotions, relationships, thoughts, etc. And then the missing pieces slowly became apparent through the unfolding of events after 2012... and the meeting of two very special people.

It was through a group meeting that I initiated, in which a Circle of friends met once a month called the Wisdom Circle, that I met David, my future ONE-TLC partner. Meeting David was the beginning and opening of my Cosmic & Divine Understanding and a missing piece; Sacredness of the Unseen. David shared his knowledge of how Spirit Light Forces integrate and work within this earthly realm.

I have ALLways been close to “GOD” although I was not raised in a church nor did I have any religious training in this lifetime. My childhood experiences did not Truly comprehend nor act the word “Divine”. David’s wisdom allowed me to open my mind to concepts that I had never known before, especially quantum understanding, and connect them to my closeness to “GOD”. The most impactful wisdom he imparted to me was:

Take charge of my own reality because I Am the creator of it and I can change it!

I have taken this to Heart.

With my mind beginning to open, I began to feel safe enough to expand my mind, feelings, and body to allow more of the Unknown into my physical existence.

Another missing piece came through Marshall “Golden Eagle” Jack, a Native American Elder. Golden Eagle stayed with us for about six weeks in 2013. Golden Eagle brought forth the Sacredness of the Seen. He shared Native American stories while modeling and demonstrating the importance of Honoring, Respecting, and holding Mother Earth and ALL Life Sacred.

I have always held the Native American culture close to Heart and had friends who honored the Native American ways as well. What was different for me... was that I was Experiencing first hand the Love and Dedication of a True Elder, deeply devoted to fulfilling his purpose and dreams of a humanity that Honors and Respects the Earth. The most impactful wisdom he imparted to me was:

“I need to make a Commitment.”

I have taken this to Heart.

During the time Marshall stayed with us he performed two ceremonies while David cordially stood in Spiritual Light and offered Cosmic Connections.

The first ceremony was a land Dedication in which a Heart was formed from the elements of the Earth. This was truly an unforgettable ceremony and gathering of friends. Several of Golden Eagles’ Grandmothers along with friends assisted and graciously offered their Love and Sacred Energy to open Potentials for the Land and ONE-TLC.

David and I, along with friends and family, revamped the Heart the very next year. We Now use it as a focal point for all of our services here at our ten acre facility and retreat.

The second ceremony took place a few months later when Golden Eagle gathered friends and family into a Community Circle to voice desires and intentions for creating a New Sacred Reality.

The purpose was to join with like minds and share ideas and thoughts. Our voices were heard by both Spirit and Nature Forces as we expressed ourselves among each other.

Following are the intentions that were voiced on that day; you may recognize your own thoughts, desires, and dreams:

- All plants, animals, and nature to be treated with respect and honor
- The opportunity for our children to experience true family connectedness and unconditional love
- To hold Compassion within an education system that models integrity, truth, and free expression
- The ability of humanity to let go of any pain, hurt, and discontent in their hearts so that their True Source can shine forth
- That humanity lives in non-judgment of each other and complete acceptance of one another
- That humanity comes together in cooperation and community
- That we all see the GOoD in everything, and understand that our interruptions are our real work
- That we find true happiness in helping someone
- To realize that our children are our future and that they are looking for direction & guidance
- That we see the progress and good that has already been happening while keeping the faith and hope for a better future

Humanity is Now, more than ever, Being encouraged to gather cooperatively in like-mindedness and purpose to initiate changes that will bring about a more desirable reality.

Through discovering the Sacredness of the Seen and the Sacredness of the Unseen in your life, you can bring forth the Light within that Is ALLways there. Simply giving yourself a quiet time and space to Love, Honor and Respect what is currently in your Life will amplify the Light within your Heart and promote the Universal flow of Love. You will be Embodying Your Divine Self and contributing to the upliftment of Humanity.

You might ask yourself the following questions:

Am I holding my Life and Experiences as Sacred?

Am I willing to speak up, step out, and make a change?

Am I willing to make a commitment to my purpose and/or dreams?

If you would like assistance, there are many Dedicated Souls who are waiting in the wings to assist you, including Myself and David at ONE-TLC.

Love & Namaste on your path of Self-Discovery...
Jackie
